

CONTENTS — DEVELOPMENT BULLETIN NO 63

WATER, GOVERNANCE AND THE POLITICAL ECONOMY WATER SECURITY AND POVERTY REDUCTION IN ASIA–PACIFIC

|   |    |
|---|----|
| Editor's notes   | 3  |
| Opening address  |    |
| Address to the symposium by the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Foreign AffairsThe Hon. Chris Gallus, MP                             | 5  |
| Discussion   |    |
| Introduction: Key issues in water, governance and the political economyMarjorie Sullivan   | 7  |
| Features   |    |
| Reaching the UN Millennium Development Goals for water supply and sanitation:Putting people at the centreGourisankar Ghosh                   | 12 |
| Will there be water wars?Alan Dupont   | 16 |
| Averting an impending crisisMark W Rosegrant, Ximing Cai and Sarah A Cline   | 21 |
| Linking science and social science for sustainable catchment management:A modelling perspectiveAJ Jakeman and RA Letcher                     | 24 |
| Research for agricultural water management in Asia: How can we make a difference?IR Willett  | 28 |
| Institutional constraints to achieving water security and productivity for agriculture:A case study in VietnamHector M Malano                | 32 |
| The Mekong: Localised strategies for effecting changeMichael Simon   | 37 |
| Financing the water and sanitation goals: The role of aidGarth Luke  | 42 |
| What role for private sector participation in meeting the needs of the unserved poor?Grant Hill  | 46 |
| Reflections on water: Gender and governance in Indian developmentKuntala Lahiri-Dutt   | 50 |
| Diluted by design: Women in water supply and sanitation projectsAllison Ley  | 55 |
| Integrated water management in the South PacificMeg Keen   | 60 |
| Key issues in water security and sustainable development in the PacificRhonda Bower and Clive Carpenter  | 65 |
| Rethinking water education in the PacificChristian Nielsen   | 69 |
| Issues in water management and use in Pacific atoll communitiesIan White, Tony Falkland, Taboia Metutera, Eita Metai, Pascal Perez and Anne Dray | 73 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| The water resource management regime in Papua New GuineaColin Filer and Kay Kalim   | 79  |
| Improving community participation in water and sanitation projects in Pacific Island countriesLeonie Crennan  | 84  |
| Community water supply and sanitation in East TimorAlan Smith   | 88  |
| Communications and community participation in the International Waters Programme:Strategies, activities and lessons learnedNatasha Stacey and Samson Samasoni | 91  |
| Water and sanitation in rural communities: A PNG case studySarah Ekali  | 95  |
| Wan Smolbag and the turtle monitor networkMorinda Tari and Kami Roberts   | 97  |
| Water, governance and the political economy:Discussion and recommendations from the policy round table and community workshopPamela Thomas                    | 98  |
| Viewpoint   |     |
| Conflict, resources, water and entrapmentColin Butler   | 103 |
| Natural disaster risk reduction: The policy and practice of institutional donorsSarah La Trobe  | 106 |
| A livestock ride out of poverty and into world tradeCarlos Seré   | 110 |
| Publications  |     |
| New books  | 112 |
| Journals   | 115 |
| Reports  | 116 |
| Resources   |     |
| Organisations and programs   | 118 |
| Web resources  | 122 |