

DEVNET: The Aotearoa New Zealand International Development Studies Network Conference 2006

SOUTHERN PERSPECTIVES ON DEVELOPMENT: DIALOGUE OR DIVISION?

30 Nov – 2 Dec 2006

University of Otago, Dunedin, New Zealand

FIRST CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENT AND CALL FOR SESSION THEMES

The DEVNET 2006 organising committee – the Inequality, Poverty and Development Cluster (IPD) at the University of Otago – warmly invites you to the DEVNET 2006 Conference Southern Perspectives on Development: Dialogue or Division? At this stage we are seeking expressions of interest for Conference sessions. If you would like to organise a session on a particular theme please email ideas to devnet2006@geography.otago.ac.nz or alternatively contact Dr Andrew McGregor (+64 3 479 8780) or Dr Alan Dixon (+64 3 479 8971).

Key dates:

- 15th February: Final date for submission of session themes for consideration
- 1st March: First call for papers and announcement of session themes
- 30th May 2006: Final date for submission of abstracts for consideration
- 30th June: Acceptance letters and notifications for those who submitted proposals will begin to be distributed on June 30, 2006
- 30th July: Early bird registration
- 1st November: Final date for regular registration

Related websites:

DEVNET - <http://www.devnet.org.nz>

IPD - <http://www.otago.ac.nz/humanities/research/clusters/inequality>