ANZ BANK STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

to attend

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE: ADDRESSING POVERTY: PRO-POOR GROWTH & FINANCIAL INCLUSION IN ASIA PACIFIC

December 5-6, 2006, National Museum of Australia, Canberra

WORKSHOP: BRIDGING RESEARCH, POLICY & PRACTICE

December 7, 2006, University House, Australian National University

The ANZ Bank, in collaboration with the Development Studies Network at the Australian National University, is offering ten scholarships for postgraduate students working in Pacific Island development, development economics or community development to attend these two events. The scholarship covers:

- registration fees for the conference
- conference dinner
- registration fees for the one-day policy workshop

Pacific Island students in particular are invited to apply. The scholarships are available to the first ten students who send in a completed application form. The form is attached. You must include your student number.

Conference: The conference will provide the opportunity to participate in discussion with international speakers on current research into new and innovative economic models for reaching the very poor. It will have a strong focus on Asia and the Pacific and include a number of Pacific case studies. The programme is on our website <http://devnet.anu.edu.au>.

Workshop: The one-day workshop, facilitated by John Young, Director of the Research and Policy in International Development Programme, at the Overseas Development Institute, London will provide hands on training in economic policy-making and policy-focused research. There are 50 places only available.

Organisers: The conference and workshop have been organised by the Development Studies Network at the Australian National University in collaboration with the Foundation for Development Cooperation.
